DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-35 are pending in this action. According to the communication dated 10/02/2008. Set of original claims 1-35 has been examined.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I) Claims 1-31 drawn to a method and infrastructure for configuring a data processing system that interacts with multiple data sources via a set of respective management agents comprising creating configuration information used for modifying the data processing system and automatically applying the configuration information to modify the data processing system by making a change to the set of management agents, classified in class 707, subclass 102.

- II) Claims 32-34 drawn to a method for configuring a data processing system comprising importing the configuration information to the data processing system, wherein the configuration information includes a configuration description and applying the configuration information to the data processing system by comparing the configuration description and modifying the data processing system based on the comparison result, classified in class 707, subclass 6.

- III) Claim 35 drawn to a data structure comprising first data expressed in the mark-up language that specifies a description for configuring the core storage area and second data expressed in the mark-up language that specifies a description for configuring the at least one management agent, classified in class 709, subclass 220.

3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are they have different modes of operation and designs, group I describe creating configuration information used for modifying the data processing system and automatically applying the configuration information to modify the data processing system by making a change to the set of management agents, group II performs importing the configuration information including description to the data processing system, and applying the configuration information to the data processing system by comparing the configuration description and modifying the data processing system based on the comparison result, group III describes a data structure comprising first data expressed in the mark-up language that specifies a description for configuring the core storage area and second data expressed in the mark-up language that specifies a description for configuring the at least one management agent.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
